Just because it still seems to be an issue with Negative Reviews.

Great Items but their use depends on your Play Style

In the First Bunker at that Very Beginning of the Game, The Items are in the Trunk.. fun for all age's lol. Okay if you want one more melee weapon.. The second last review! and this one like said before is very similiar to the Pirate DLC. but this one is a little more interesting starting with the hat. because the hat actually looks decent. of course it just gives the stock DLC -30% damage reduction. but unlike the Pirate DLC hat. it doesn't look half bad. as well as the fact this one has a much more entertaining cosplay. the three muskateers! not that I ever found two other people with this DLC. but you know, maybe you can eventually. and have your own.

and the weapon! it is looks like a fencing sword. and that is kinda what I wanted it to be. because currently it looks like a mix between a fencing sword. and sword with a fancy hilt. the blade of this thing just looks strange. and like the other sword it just doesn't do well. although it is better than the pirate sword! because it only takes 5 stamina each swing! so yeah. the strange blade happens to make it easier to swing after all.

and now the pet! this thing is the only pet in the game that is tiny! adorable little thing will sit on your shoulder like all the others. just smaller. and this time the stat gains are the stock carry bonus and zombie detection range bonus, but then some sprint speed and health bonus. I guess his smalll size makes him weigh you down less. go a bit faster with him on you unlike all the other bigger DLC birds. and I would say it is the tank bird, but that goes to the last DLC bird I will be reviewing.

again, this DLC is just not something I can see being used outside of fun moments with friends. so only get it if you have plans with the items. otherwise they will claim dust in the private trunk.. Others try ! I succeed... This DLC contains the Musketeer's hat (30% damage reduction), the Rapier (around 2500 DPS) and the Nightgale pet :

- Sprint speed + 25%
- Distance infected detected + 2000m
- Health bonus + 100%
- Weight bonus 30A frenchie DLC for baguette lovers.. Just because it still seems to be an issue with Negative Reviews.
